The Honorable William T. Cahill
The House of Representatives
Washington, D.C.

Dear Mr. Cahill:

My associates and I appreciate the time you were able to give to consideration of H.R. 2138. I regret that your schedule did not permit us to meet personally after the hearing last Thursday.

If you should have any questions in addition to those asked at the hearing, I would be happy to meet with you at your convenience.

Thanks for your interest and attention to this most important legislation.

Sincerely yours,

John Richardson, Jr.
